Every day that goes by where citizens allow the cover up the of most sinister crime in the history of the world to to be covered up and dismissed we are putting nails in the coffin of our way of life and perhaps the country as a whole. The media is already starting to shelve the Epstein story. Why? The same organization which wants the crime covered up owns the media. What do you expect the media to do? This is what the situation appears to be from the fantasy free vantage point.

The whole Epstein episode has been in the planning for a long time. The appearance is that Donald Trump, hired William Barr as attorney general for the express purpose of making sure the case doesn't go far enough to damage any of the multitude of the world's elite who visited his Island.

So, what does Trump get out of it? The elite will call off the media attack dogs and stop trying to sabotage the Trump presidency. They may even support his re election now. Watch and see if it doesn't turn out that way. If the Deep State heat picks up again, then the Trump administration has the option of implicating them. If the heat on Trump dies down, you can bet that is why.

There was such a comedy of errors in the handling of Jeffrey Epstein in jail that it is completely impossible that he wasn't set up to be murdered and then of course murdered. The only other thing that could have happened is that it was made sure that he had opportunities to commit suicide should he want to. Another alternative is that the mob in charge convinced Epstein that committing suicide would be in his best interest to commit. However, there was no way he was going to get out of that jail alive or even talk while he had a chance to. Epstein was murdered.

So, Bill Clinton was at the Island twenty seven times. Chances are he did more than play shuffle board, drink fine wine and enjoy the company of old friends. Suppose he did exploit the young girls. What if they grew up, got away and talked? To prevent that, they some may be dead and buried on the island? Are there any plans to dig around on the island and find out? If there are bodies on that island, you can bet there will be no effort to find them. Bill Clinton was just one elite who had the honor of indulging on that island. Certainly they all appreciate Trumps offer. Perhaps now, Trump can join the club.

I remember a while back members of congress insisting that investigations of things are warranted due to the seriousness of a charge. Is there anything not serious about charges being levied in the Epstein case? Are any lawmakers insisting on investigation?

Yes, there are ongoing investigations but all by folks who may have an interest in burying the episode. A panel of ordinary citizens needs to be organized as a means of investigating a crime like this. The same FBI that tried to rig the 2016 election has raided the island. Chances are the efforts of the FBI's effort are more to make sure there is no significant evidence rather than to find any. How about the CIA? Earlier in history the CIA helped orchestrate the assassination of John Kennedy? How much has the CIA changed since then?

The consequences to ordinary citizens from letting anointed people live above the law and commit crimes with impunity is far greater than folks yet realize. There is no one in government who will put this system to rest. Citizens absolutely must insist on justice. I don't mean in a small way. I mean an effort at least equal to the antiwar effort during the Vietnam War era.
